DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nardone et al. (US 5,546,116).

Nardone et al. disclose the following claimed limitations:

* regarding claim 1, a recording material/79/ feeding method for a color printer, said color printer having a feed roller pair for nipping and feeding recording material, and plural print heads disposed along a feeding path for printing different colors respectively, said feed roller pair being constituted of a capstan roller/drive roller, 68/ and a pinch roller/pассив roller, 118/, said recording material feeding method comprising the step of (Abstract, fig 5);

* determining an interval between said print heads/14,16,18/ as equal to a distance of a multiple of an integer multiplied by a circumferential length of said capstan roller/drive roller, 68/ (col 2, lines 24-30, col 7, lines 24-34, fig 5).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-4 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 5-8 are allowed.

The primary reason for allowance of claims 5-8 is the inclusion of the limitations of a color printer that includes plural thermal heads, arranged on a downstream side of said feed roller pair, for heating said recording material in order to record one of the plural colors while feeding, and an interval between said thermal heads being a distance of a multiple of an integer multiplied by a circumferential length of said capstan roller. It is this limitation found in the claims, as it is claimed in the combination of that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record, which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Iida (US 5274544) disclose a single pass multicolor thermal transfer printer. Inui et al. (US 5724085) disclose a one-pass multi-head type thermal printer. Sakamoto et al. (US 5964543) disclose a roll shaped image receiving sheet for a thermal transfer printer having a plurality of indeterminately spaced thermal transfer image receiving areas. Miyazaki et al. (JP 4-28564) disclose a compact thermal transfer recording device having thermal head intervals set to become $L/(N-1)$ over the cylindrical surface of the platen roller.
